Integra Telecom Charity Golf Classic Raises $40,000 for Phoenix Boys and Girls Clubs

Phoenix– Oct. 18, 2010 – Employees of Integra Telecom’s Phoenix office hosted a charity golf classic to benefit the Boys and Girls Clubs of Metropolitan Phoenix. Held on October 13 at the Legacy Golf Resort in Phoenix, this event attracted 144 golfers and 63 Integra volunteers. This is the 7th year Integra Telecom has hosted this fundraising event as part of Integra’s Community Matters program, which benefits the lives of people in the communities that Integra serves.

“We are thrilled to again partner with local businesses to raise much needed funds for the Boys and Girls Club,” said Aaron Capsel Business Manager at Integra Telecom in Arizona. “Working to improve the communities we serve is core value here at Integra and was a great way to offer our support.”

About the Boys and Girls Club

The Boys and Girls Clubs of America has a mission to enable all young people to reach their full potential as productive, caring, responsible citizens. The Clubs provide 4.5 million boys and girls at more the 4,300 locations across the country with programs and services that offer a safe place to learn and grow – all while having fun.
